English

Give An Appropriate Ending To A Given Situation
Dear Learner,

Hello! How are you today? I hope you are set for today’s activity.
Let us learn to give ending to a story or situation
I hope you will have much fun.

Read the stories below. Circle the possible ending.

1. Rey was invited to a fiesta. After eating in his friend’s house, they went to three more houses. Rey ate plenty of different kinds of food. When they were going back to his friend’s house. Rey was holding his stomach and can’t walk well.
What do you think happened to Rey?

   a. Rey has stomach ache.
   b. Rey was so happy.
   c. Rey wanted to eat more.
   d. Rey was just joking to his friends.

2. It was six o’clock in the evening. Boyen was still playing with his friends. His sister called him because it was getting dark. he doesn’t want to go home yet. Suddenly he came home crying with his behind him.
What do you think Boyen was crying?

   a. Boyen enjoyed his play.
   b. Boyen doesn’t like to play anymore.
   c. Boyen was hurt by his sister.
   d. Boyen was not afraid of his sister.
Are your answers same as this?

1. a
2. c

Don’t worry if you did not have a perfect score. This time this module will teach you how to give possible ending.

Let’s Study This

Find out what will happen next. Which picture will tell you?

a. They will play  b. They will sleep
c. They will dance  d. They will clean the yard
The answer is letter d.

Why do you think the answer is letter d?

The broom and dust pan are things used for cleaning. So, we can say that they are going to clean the yard.

Broom and dust pan are called signal clues.

Signals or clues are used to tell what will happen next.

Let's Do This

Draw a line to match the sentence with the expected ending.

1. There are many pieces of paper on the floor.   a.
2. Mother is sweeping the yard.   b.
3. Father carries the trash bag.   c.
4. Dan and Ana are eating bananas.   d.
Tell what will happen next by underlining your answer.

1. Lino was with Donna and Nico. He was eating peanuts.
   a. He shared the bag of peanuts with Donna and , Nico.
   b. He kept his bag of peanuts in the box.
   c. He ate all the peanuts.

2. After eating the peanuts, the children were holding the trash.
   a. They would hide the trash under the table.
   b. They would throw the trash anywhere.
   c. They would throw the trash in the trash can.

3. Lino was trying to throw the trash on the ground.
   a. His friends scolded him.
   b. His friends reminded him to look for a trash can.
   c. His friends told him to throw the trash anywhere.

4. Everybody throws his/her trash in the proper container.
   a. Our grounds are clean.
   b. Our grounds are dirty.
   c. Our grounds are dry.
Are you done?
Please check your answer against the Check Yourself.

What's your score? _________

If you get 3 or 4 correct answers proceed to “Test Yourself”.
If you get 1 or 2 correct answers, do the activity below.

Let’s Do It Once More

Can you tell what will happen next? Read the events carefully. Put a star on the best answer.

1. Mary did not bring her umbrella. Heavy rain poured after a few minutes.
   _________ She would be happy.
   _________ She might catch cold.
   _________ She did not get wet.

2. Rafael ran after his ball across the street. He didn't look to his right and left. He failed to see a car coming.
   _________ Rafael was bumped by the car.
   _________ Rafael was able to cross the street safely.
   _________ Rafael waited for the ball to just roll back to him.

3. James did not eat his sandwich during recess.
   _________ James would get hungry.
   _________ James would be happy about it.
   _________ James would be angry about it.

4. Miss Montalvo, the teacher was called at the principal's office. Her class got noisy when she left the room.
   _________ The teacher got angry.
   _________ The teacher was happy.
   _________ The teacher did not say, anything at all.

5. A woman asked us for directions. Unfortunately we did not know the place she was looking for.
   _________ We would pretend that we know the directions.
   _________ We would not pay attention to the woman.
   _________ We would tell her that we don't know the way.
Are you done?

Check you answers now against the “Check Yourself”.

Let’s Think It Over

How do we give possible ending of the story?

Remember this:

Possible ending is given through the clues or signals.

Test Yourself

What would happen next? Check your answer.

1. Rey watched television all afternoon. He forgot to do his homework. What would happen?

__________ His teacher would ignore him.
__________ His teacher would give him a low grade.
__________ His teacher would not let him write.

2. Jolino did not turn off the light in his room before he went to school. What would happen?

__________ More electricity would be wasted.
__________ The room would not be lighted.
__________ Mother would not turn off the light.

3. Criselda wanted to buy a new toy doll. She had no money. What would happen?

__________ She would shout.
__________ She would ask her mother or father to buy it.
__________ She would save money so she can buy the toy next time.
4. It Was P.E. day. Agnes was not wearing her P.E. uniform. What would happen?

_________ She would not attend her P.E. class.
_________ She would ask excuse from her teacher.
_________ She would cry.

5. It was dismissal time and it was raining very hard. Nomer did not have a raincoat nor an umbrella. What would happen?

_________ He would call up his parents to tell them that he might go home.
_________ He would not go home.
_________ He would wait till the rain stops.

Are you done?

Now check your answer against the Check Yourself.

What’s your score?

Ok, well done dear learner. You are now ready to work on the next module.

Good Luck!!!
Let’s Do It Once More

1. She might catch cold.
2. Rafael was bumped by the car.
3. James would get hungry.
4. The teacher got angry.
5. We would tell her that we don’t know the way.

Test Yourself

1. His teacher would give him low grade.
2. More electricity would be wasted.
3. She would save money so she can buy the toy next time.
4. She would ask excuse from her teacher.
5. He would wait till the rain stops.